On the 27th day of October, 2008, the captioned matter came on for trial by a jury. Plaintiff appeared pro se. All defendants appeared and were represented by counsel. A jury of twelve persons was properly selected and impaneled, the testimony of witnesses was taken, and exhibits were received into evidence.

During the trial, the Court determined that plaintiff's claims against all defendants in their official capacities should be dismissed, and that plaintiff's claims against separate defendants Sheriff Keith Ferguson, Captain Petray, and Lt. Carter in their individual capacities should be dismissed.
